

Eternal Saviour and friend (Lord, you have called me by name)

Lord, you have called me by name
Your love has touched me again
You set me free
And yet you never let me go
Now by Your mercy redeemed
My heart has finally found peace
And in Your arms
I will not fear tomorrow

Chorus:
Jesus, Deliverer
Eternal Saviour and friend
Your love has taught me how to live
Life abundant and free
Your love has taught me how to live
Life abundant and free

You are my shield and my rock
A guiding light in the dark
You are my King who conquers all my enemies
Your love is better than wine
And I am Yours, You are mine
You are my life,
Your love is never changing
