

Who's the little baby

Born, born, born born in a stable;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?
Born of Mary; she laid Him in a manger;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?

Angels proclaimed the birth to shepherds on the hillside,
shepherds attending their flocks at night.
Born is the child; the prophets long ago foretold it.
The heavens were filled with a glorious light

Born, born, born born in a stable;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?
Born of Mary; she laid Him in a manger;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?

Let's go to Bethlehem and see the little baby;
go to the stable and see Him now!
Lifting our hands, we'll praise His holy name forever
Down on our knees, we'll humbly kneel and bow.

Born, born, born born in a stable;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?
Born of Mary; she laid Him in a manger;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?

Born, born, born born in a stable;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?
Born of Mary; she laid Him in a manger;
Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?

Who's the little baby born in Bethlehem?
Jesus is the little baby born in Bethlehem, in Bethlehem
