

THE FROZEN DECEMBER

Lyrics: Traditional Vilancico

Translation: Lynn Winget & Thomas A. Miller

Music: Thomas A. Miller

Solo

Very freely and tenderly $\text{♩} = 72-84$
mp Mm rit.

5 In bleas De - cem - ber's chill, earth lay hard and fro - zen;

© 1973, 1997, Thomas A. Miller / TRINITAS / OCP
(adm. by Smallstonemediasongs.com)

Reproduction of this publication without permission of the publisher is a criminal offense subject to prosecution

Duration: 3:56
ECC17.1544.01D

26 All the world dwelt in the night, e'ver since A - dam's sin - ning; Deep - es - dark - ness,
Mm Mm Mm

31 lost from light, Hope was ev - er dim - ming. Then there shone as
Mm

35 bright as day, One great light, one shin - ing ray that will show the way from the dark to

39 allargando
day, came the light, dark - ness that dis - pel - ling; Peace on earth fore - tell - ing.

43 Descant (soprano Solo)
a tempo
Ah Ah
As Spring-time now had come, yet while still De - cem - ber; Now has bloomed in 9 Wait - ing for the Spring - time still, and new life to blos - som.

13 mf
Sud - den - ly a rose, so new, from a love - ly

16 allargando
gar - den grew; and the rose, it grew, bring - ing life - new; Oh, the rose, may it bloom for -

19 ev - er, blos - som of De - cem - ber.

22 rit.
Mm
2 ECC17.1544.01D

48 ms
win - ter's sun, Li - ly, wond - rous, ten - der. Love - ly fra - grance fills the air,

53 sweet per - fume of Li - ly fair, Sweet - ly scent - ed air, Love - ly Li - ly

56 allargando
fair, Li - ly fair, bloom - ing in De - cem - ber; Li - ly pure and ten - der.

60 molto rit.
Mm

64
Li - - - - ly pure and ten - - - - der.