Solo

WORSHIP LEADER: Lord, what can we offer You? (music begins) We give You our hearts Forever we'll sing "Gloria in excelsis Deo" — we give You our lives, surrendered and broken, desperately in need of a Savior.
And Jesus... ultimately (singing) I give You my heart...

HOST: And we praise the Lord who has come. He set aside all of the trappings due His station. He humbled Himself to live a life of obedience that led Him from His throne in Heaven, to a manger of straw, from His courts of praise, to my cross of shame. He did not let His exalted position, or His protection stand in the way of saving us. In like manner, we obey. We come stripped of pride and filled with the wonders of His love. It is right and fitting that we offer our all to Him whose birth we celebrate this day. The song the angels taught us on that Holy Night whose eye was not just meant for them - it was given to us. The song has continued through centuries and will echo into eternity; forever praise, forever thanksgiving, forever Gloria!
