

8 This love of yours. Text & music: Stein Jonassen © Continental Sound Music, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

All I am hungers for your healing love, and all of me is crying out to You
All I am, and ever hope to be, I give You, all of me will die without this love of yours

All I am hungers for your healing love, and all of me is crying out to You
All I am, and ever hope to be, I give You, all of me will die without this love of yours

When my mind can't fight the night, You're near me, feel I'm drowning in despair; You're there
Can't begin to understand your mercy, I only know my heart will stop without your love

All I am hungers for your healing love, and all of me is crying out to You
All I am, and ever hope to be, I give You, all of me will die without this love of yours

As I climb towards the light You've given, see through the shadow of my tears; your cross
Can't begin to understand your mercy, I only know my heart will stop without your love

All I am hungers for your healing love, and all of me is crying out to You
All I am, and ever hope to be, I give You, all of me will die without this love of yours

Make my life a song to You, Lord, I need You to shine through me
Make my life a song to You, Jesus, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You
Jesus, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You
Make my life a song to You, Lord, I need You to shine through me
Make my life a song to You, Jesus, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You
Jesus, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You, I love You

All I am hungers for your healing love, and all of me is crying out to You
All I am, and ever hope to be, I give You, all of me will die without this love of yours
I'll die without this love of yours
I'll die without this love of yours
