Thank You, God, for letting me hear your own music everywhere
In my mind, let it grow strong, all creation sings this song
You chose me, I was a little boy, gave me faith and love and joy
Still, You care, will not ever stop, You will never give me up

Thank You most of all for choosing Calvary, it was for me You bled and died alone
Fighting your way back again to Heavens throne

Father, You know me by name, and your love remains the same
Come what may, You hold me close in your embrace
Your name is written on my heart, my life sheltered from the start
Through it all You wipe each teardrop from my face

Thank You, God, for every day, blessings that You send my way
Every heartbeat You're giving me in this nation You set free
Thanx for friends and my family, all the love they give to me
I'm so thankful for everything, I was crying, now I sing

Thank You most of all for lifting me from this valley of darkness that I walked alone
Setting me in Heaven right beside your throne

Father, You know me by name, and your love remains the same
Come what may, You hold me close in your embrace
Your name is written on my heart, my life sheltered from the start
Through it all You wipe each teardrop from my face

Present, past and future, I give You, my King
My life is yours; I owe You everything
Lord, I want to know You deeper than before
Fill my life, Jesus, more and more and more

Father, You know me by name, and your love remains the same
Come what may, You hold me close in your embrace
Your name is written on my heart, my life sheltered from the start
Through it all You wipe each teardrop from my face

Father, You know me by name, and your love remains the same
Come what may, You hold me close in your embrace
Your name is written on my heart, my life sheltered from the start
Through it all You wipe each teardrop from my face
